REMARKS

1. On 20 May 1951, twin-jet aircraft were again seen flying in formations of three over Doeberitz airfield. The planes flew under the cloud base.
2. Between 3 and 5:30 p.m. on 22 May, 74 single-engine ground attack aircraft were counted on the northern edge of the field. More than half of the planes were covered with tarpaulins. Some of the aircraft were painted dark green, others had a multi-colored camouflage paint. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ Almost all the planes had red stripes on the leading edges of their rudder assemblies. Thirty-eight ground attack aircraft were counted in front of the closed hangars in the southern section of the field.
3. Local flying was observed at 3 p.m. and still continued at 5:30 p.m. All the planes had two-men crews. Motor vehicles which entered the field or moved into the air force barracks north of the field included: truck ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ coming from the direction of Dallgow, truck ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~, ambulance ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ and van-like trucks ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~.
- * ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ Comment. The type and number of aircraft and the motor vehicle numbers indicate that the airfield is still occupied by two ground attack regiments. The two regiments are equipped with a total of about 120 IL-10s.
